Toller Cranston Figure Skating Legend and World Renowned Artist Leaps into Victoria

CALGARY, Oct. 21 /CNW/ - Artevo Corporation (ARTEVO) (TSX Venture: AEV) a technology driven company focused on the production, marketing and distribution of all categories of fine art, today unveiled its plan to market Toller Cranston original artworks on a global basis.

October 30th - November 14th Artevo Gallery at 616 Fort St. in Victoria is proud to present the latest exhibition and sale of works from Toller Cranston.

Born in Hamilton, Canada, Toller Cranston, the "painter who skated" is widely acclaimed as the most influential figure skater of this century. A lifetime of remarkable achievements make this artist extraordinary: Olympic medalist; Member of the Order of Canada; three-time world free-skating champion; Canadian Athlete of the Year; internationally-known painter, illustrator, author, designer, choreographer; commentator and star of award-winning television specials and films. These credits are merely the tip of the creative iceberg. As an artist, Mr. Cranston is highly respected by his peers and has exhibited in many prestigious galleries around the world.

Toller will be available on October 29th to the media at the Artevo Gallery from 3-5 pm at a group media reception. Private interviews can be arranged by Contacting Artevo Gallery Victoria 250-389-1699
